

Bailey Zobel Pilcher to Present at Central Florida Forum of Estate Planning Attorneys, Inc.
Winter Florida Forum

Orlando, FL – February 20, 2013 – Bailey Zobel Pilcher, a boutique law firm focused on the practice areas of probate, wills, trust and planning, announced today that all three of the firm’s founding partners will be presenting at the Central Florida Forum of Estate Planning Attorneys, Inc. Winter Florida Forum. The Florida Forum, which provides Florida estate planning attorneys with an array of advanced educational sessions, leading-edge business practices and networking opportunities, will be held February 21 and 22, 2013, at the Rosen Centre Hotel in Orlando, Florida.

Managing Partner Merrell Bailey will present an interactive session called, “Planning After the Craziest Tax Year Ever.” The presentation will address the major provisions of the American Taxpayer Relief Act of 2012 (ATRA) and the expected planning changes resulting from the new law, as well as suggestions for best practices and planning opportunities in 2013.

In a separate session, attorneys Hallie Zobel and David Pilcher will co-present a session about the changes to beneficiary designations related to divorce. Entitled, “My Ex-Wife is Dead to Me: New Law Changes Beneficiary Designations,” this session will explain the new 2012 law that nullifies the designation of a spouse as a beneficiary of non-probate assets after a divorce or annulment and review best practices for advising clients facing or going through this situation.

“We are honored to present not just one, but two important sessions at this conference,” Bailey said. “We take enormous pride in being asked to present to an audience of our peers. We look forward to sharing this information with attendees in a fun, interactive and informative manner,” Bailey said.
