

Bailey Zobel Pilcher Managing Partner Merrell Bailey to Receive Award of Excellence from UCF College of Business Administration

Orlando, FL – January 22, 2013 – Bailey Zobel Pilcher, a boutique law firm focused on the practice areas of probate, wills, trust and planning, announced today that the University of Central Florida’s College of Business Administration will recognize Merrell Bailey as one of Central Florida’s top 50 businesses and community leaders in a banquet commemorating UCF’s 50th Anniversary. The Mardi Gras-themed banquet is the highlight of a week-long celebration marking the impact and contribution of UCF to the region and those who helped shape it over the last five decades. It will be held on Friday, February 15, from 6 to 10 p.m. at the Venue at UCF (formerly the Arena).

Bailey is among 50 people or organizations selected by a nominating committee as best exemplifying the five tenets of the UCF Creed—integrity, scholarship, community, creativity, and excellence. Bailey will be recognized for exemplifying the tenant of excellence because, in accordance with the university’s creed, she “consistently goes above and beyond and performs at the highest level in every endeavor she participates in.” Award recipients will be recognized by Paul Jarley, Dean of the College of Business Administration on the night of the banquet.

“This event promises to be fun for all, and will be a great opportunity to reflect upon the past 50 years, as well as look forward to our very promising future,” Dean Jarley said.

“I am humbled and honored to have been chosen to receive this award among so many prestigious individuals and organizations,” Bailey said. “UCF has been very good to me. I earned five of my six college degrees from the UCF College of Business Administration and use each of them every single day. UCF is such a dynamic university. I am passionate about contributing to the continued growth and success of its preeminent College of Business Administration.”
