Welcome to The Robinson Law Firm! I look forward to meeting you at our initial consultation.

During this meeting, I will examine your estate planning goals and discuss strategies to achieve these objectives. To ensure that your consultation is meaningful, please complete the enclosed Welcome Packet. Please complete the welcome packet in as much detail as possible, and send it to me at least three (3) business days before the scheduled meeting. If you are not sure about exact figures or information, your best estimate is sufficient for our initial consultation.

The welcome packet provides a comprehensive picture of your personal and financial situation. Without this critical information, my ability to advise you is severely compromised. We ask for this information ahead of time so that we will be able to focus more of our consultation time on your substantive questions and concerns. The information you provide is confidential.

You have already taken the first step toward achieving your personal estate planning goals. Now, make the most of your consultation by returning your completed Welcome Packet. We believe your decision to investigate your estate planning options shows you are serious about protecting yourself and your loved ones.

We look forward to meeting with you!

If you have any questions about the Welcome Packet or anything else, please call me at (267) 225-3529.

Sincerely,

Beneficiary: A person designated as the recipient of funds or other property under a will, trust, insurance policy, etc.

Executor: A person named in a decedent's will to carry out the provisions of that will.

IT DEPENDS on what is important to you. If it is...	With a Will Here's what happens	With a Trust Here's what happens
Privacy	No privacy. All documents and proceedings after death are public.	Totally private, unless court intervention is required, usually due to improper drafting, lack of funding or loss of trustee.
Disability Planning	No provisions for mental or physical disability. The disabled person is subject to the court process for guardianship. Need a power of attorney, updated every 2 years. A power of attorney can provide that disability be determined privately by family members and friends.	Handles assets upon disability without court intervention. Need a power of attorney for non-trust assets. A trust can provide that disability be determined privately by family members and friends.
Creditor/Predator Protection	None while alive. Creditors have only a specified amount of time to present claims or they are forever barred. Testamentary trusts can give protection.	None while alive. No creditor claim "shutoff" period, and most trusts provide that valid debts be paid. Trusts which become irrevocable at death can give protection.
Effort Required	Less effort now unless you require tax planning and asset protection for your heirs, but a great deal of work for your heirs after disability or death.	More effort now to properly design the trust to accomplish all of your goals upon disability and after death, but far less work for your heirs after disability or death.
Cost Now	Less	More
Costs to Amend	Similar	Similar
Cost Later	Probate fees alone can be as much as $6,000 in Pennsylvania.	Minimal probate fees if the trust has been fully funded and properly maintained.

CONCERNS & ANXIETIES

5

Our objective is to assist clients in identifying their concerns and anxieties. All too often in the planning process, a client will discover that there are other, more pressing concerns than the one that caused them to begin the planning process. Please review the following risks that we frequently hear from our clients, identify those risks, which concern you, and provide us with some sense about how concerned you are with that particular risk. This information will assist us in focusing our conversations toward the issues that are the most pressing to you.

If the responses in this section are different as to Client 1 and 2, please indicate those differences.

APPOINTMENTS – PEOPLE TO ASSIST YOU

6

One of the most important aspects of any estate plan is the “appointment” of various persons to assist you and your family in times of need – particularly when death or disability strikes. These appointed “helpers” are called by different names depending on the type of estate plan you elect to implement. In this Section, we try to avoid labels. Instead, we focus on the roles these helpers play in protecting your family and your estate.

ASSET ASSESSMENT

7

Determining the ownership, value and character of your assets is important to your estate and legacy plan. The title “ownership” is important for tax and transfer matters. The “value” will be significant in determining potential tax liability. The “character” is relevant in assessing the manner by which the asset can transfer. (If necessary, approximate current total values).
