DETERMINING YOUR CURRENT ESTATE PLANNING STATUS

1. Do you have a will or a Trust in place?
Without proactive planning, state laws will determine how your assets pass, to whom they pass, and when they pass. This can lead to undesired results and is, perhaps, the most costly way to pass assets to loved ones. Yes No Don't Know
2. Has your Will or Trust been reviewed in the last two years?
Even assuming that there have been no family or financial changes since your plan was last reviewed, there have been several major tax law changes. An out-of-date estate plan can be worse than no plan at all. Yes No Don't Know
3. Does your current Health Care Power of Attorney permit the person of your choosing to make emergency health care decisions for you in the event you are unable to do so? Yes No Don't Know
4. Does your estate plan contain a customized plan to determine if you are mentally disabled? Yes No Don't Know
5. Does your current estate plan give instructions for your care and the care of your loved ones in the event of disability? Yes No Don't Know
6. Are you certain that your current estate plan will minimize possible federal estate taxes at your death, including taxes on your house, life insurance and IRAs? Yes No Don't Know
7. If you have a Revocable Living Trust in place, is your trust fully funded so that your family can avoid the delay and expense of probate? Yes No Don't Know
8. Have you taken steps to avoid possible will contests and disputes during the administration of your estate? Yes No Don't Know
